

2020 Vaping Summit Speaker Bios

November 4, 2020

Jennifer Folkenroth BA, CTTS, NCTTP, NDS

National Senior Director, Tobacco Programs

American Lung Association

Jennifer Folkenroth serves as National Senior Director, Tobacco Programs, and tobacco cessation content expert for the American Lung Association. Jen brings with her 16 years' experience in tobacco and nicotine dependence treatment. She has acquired national recognition as a Mayo Clinic Certified Tobacco Treatment Specialist and has provided direct patient care in assisting over 1,000 individuals across Pennsylvania in successfully obtaining a tobacco-free life. Jen holds a National Certificate in Tobacco Treatment Practice and Nicotine Dependence Specialist national certification through NAADAC, The Association for Addiction Professionals. Jennifer also serves as a long-time member of ATTUD, the worldwide Association for the Treatment of Tobacco Use and Dependence.

Frank T. Leone, M.D., MS

Professor of Medicine

Director, Comprehensive Smoking Treatment Program

University of Pennsylvania, Perelman School of Medicine

Harron Lung Center

Dr. Leone received his medical degree from the University of Pittsburgh, School of Medicine, and completed his postgraduate training in both general internal medicine and pulmonary / critical care medicine at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital. He also received his master's degree in clinical epidemiology and biostatistics from the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine. Dr. Leone directs Penn's Comprehensive Smoking Treatment Program, a clinical program of the Penn Lung Center, located at Penn Presbyterian Medical Center, the Perelman Center for Advanced Medicine, and Penn Medicine Cherry Hill. The program provides state-of-the-art and individualized treatment to smokers, including those with co-morbidities. Dr. Leone's scholarship focuses on investigating advanced treatment strategies for tobacco use disorder, and on testing strategies for improving the care of the tobacco dependent patient. Dr. Leone is a member of several professional and scientific societies, including the Society for Research on Nicotine and Tobacco, the American College of Chest Physicians, and the American Thoracic Society. He has served the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a legislative appointee to the Governor's Tobacco Use Prevention and Cessation Advisory Committee since 2001. Dr. Leone has been invited to speak at numerous lectures on topics of smoking treatment and pulmonary medicine and has been published in a variety of clinical and research journals. He is board certified in pulmonary and critical care medicine.